Dear Teaching Candidate,

Your application for employment at Saint Jeanne de Lestonnac Catholic High School serves as a source of joy and gratitude for us. We are honored that you are seeking our school as a place to continue (or begin) your professional career and engage with our scholars with a sense of ministry.

Saint Jeanne de Lestonnac Catholic High School takes its roots from a quality, faith-filled elementary school which has served the Temecula Valley since 1999. This private Catholic school within the Diocese of San Bernardino ministers to the surrounding communities with the blessings of Bishop Barnes and under the guidance of the Sisters of the Order of the Company of Mary, Our Lady. We are blessed with your desire to share your particular gifts, and professional goals to become part of the tradition of excellence that embodies the Saint Jeanne de Lestonnac family. We encourage you to read the enclosed information so as to become familiar with our vision, the international organization of the Company of Mary, and our values as a Catholic institution committed to forming well-rounded young adults.

As part of your preparation for a potential interview, please carefully reflect upon how you envision supporting Saint Jeanne de Lestonnac Catholic High School in these formational years; providing strength to ministries and academics for scholars we are blessed to serve. During our hiring process we will engage in dialogue about your role in furthering our mission and fostering the spirit of our core Catholic values and identity. The information enclosed is to help all candidates understand the very heart of the educational pedagogy that has over 400 years of practical experience and how we will apply this tradition of excellence to this unique setting.

Again, we are delighted that you have chosen apply for a position to mentor and lead scholars at Saint Jeanne de Lestonnac Catholic High School. We look forward to receiving the required documents. We will carefully review all of the information sent and move forward in the process with qualified candidates.

With joy,

Annette Zaleski
Principal
